5.8.4 Meetings may also be convened at the request of 3 or 50% of the Committee, whichever is the larger number. Failure of the Auditor or Secretary to issue notice of said meeting within 5 days of receipt of the request by these members in writing shall entitle these members to issue said notice to the Committee.

5.8.5 All Committee members must be notified by their chosen email or by other means as agreed.

5.8.6 Committee members that fail to attend 3 consecutive Committee meetings, without apologies accepted by the Committee, shall be deemed to have resigned.

5.9 Term of Office of the Committee

The Committee shall hold office for a specific one year term to be decided and published by USCG annually (Currently July 1st – June 30th of the following year).

Article 6 Subcommittees

6.1 Any subcommittees may be set up annually at the discretion of the existing committee in any area the committee deems necessary. A subcommittee must be chaired by a full committee member.

Article 7. Plays

7.1. Dramsoc will present a number of productions for its members, other students and interested persons each semester. These plays must be proposed to the committee and must be approved by majority vote of the committee.

7.2 Auditions: When auditions are being conducted the director must allow any member of the society to audition for any role if they so wish.

7.2.1 Group auditions may take place at the discretion of the director(s) involved.

7.2.2 Dramsoc recognises pre-casting may lead to the society being viewed as a “gated community”. This practise is forbidden. Members must audition in order to be eligible for casting.

7.3 Dramsoc stages plays under the banner “Dramsoc presents...”. This will be displayed on all related publicity along with the Dramsoc logo. Such productions will be put on solely by Dramsoc members, and will be produced entirely by Dramsoc.

7.3.1 Dramsoc may assist financially or otherwise with productions staged by other groups or companies under the banner “...in association with Dramsoc”.

Article 8. ISDA

8.1. Dramsoc reserves its traditional right to represent the university at the Irish Student Drama Association and to nominate a representative to the ISDA Council each year, who also hold the position of ISDA Representative on the committee.

8.2 Selection of plays: Any director may nominate their play to go to ISDA. Adjudicators will be appointed by the committee to judge the plays on their merits. Adjudicators must rank plays in order and present results to the members of the society. The Adjudicators decisions are final. In the event that a play is pulled from the festival, the next play on the list will be given the first refusal to take part. `

8.3 ISDA Festival Director

In years in which NUIG hosts the ISDA festival, the role ISDA director will be selected by a panel consisting of auditor, vice auditor, ISDA rep, society’s officer and SU societies’ chairperson. ISDA director organises and oversees the ISDA festival and the ISDA subcommittee. Applications should be submitted via the Dramsoc email. It is not required for the Festival Director to be a registered student within the college.

Article 9. Annual General Meetings

- 9.1.1 The Annual General Meeting of the Society shall take place in the second semester of the academic year, at a time to be determined by the Committee of the Society. The Annual General Meeting must be held before the second semester teaching term ends.
- 9.1.2 No less than six days' notice of the Annual General Meeting shall be given to the Society's members. The date and time of the AGM shall be notified to the Society's Members. This is done by, at a minimum, uploading the date to the Societies Calendar, emailing all members, and by other means as agreed.

Article 10. Extraordinary General Meetings

- 10.1 An Extraordinary General Meeting of the Society may be convened to:

 - (iii) Address any other circumstance not provided for in this Constitution.
- 10.2 An Extraordinary General Meeting shall be convened:
- (i) By the Auditor or Secretary
 - (ii) By majority (50% +1) decision of the Committee; or
 - (iii) On foot of a submission to the Societies Office of a petition signed by not less than 75 Members of the Society or 33% of the membership, whichever is smaller. Only the signatures of Members who are eligible to a vote at General Meetings on the date of submission of the petition, as per Article 10.2, may be counted towards the quota of signatures.
- 10.3 In the case of a resignation or dismissal, or removal as a result of a USCG or University sanction, from the Committee of a Committee member, the Committee shall have the power to co-opt any full member of the Society to the Committee until the next general meeting (be it an EGM or an AGM), at which a new officer will be appointed. This must be convened within 4 teaching term weeks from the resignation.
- 10.4 No less than six days' notice of the Extraordinary General Meeting shall be given to the Society's members. The date and time of the EGM shall be notified to the Society's Members. This is done by, at a minimum, uploading the date to the Societies Calendar, emailing all members, and by other means as agreed.

Article 11. Election of the Committee

- 11.1 The Committee of the Society shall be elected at the Annual General Meeting, except where otherwise provided for in this Constitution.
- 11.2 The Auditor shall appoint a Returning Officer for elections. The Auditor may appoint themselves as returning officer. The Returning Officer may not be a candidate in any of the elections. The Returning Officer must not vote, bar to cast a casting vote in the event of a tie. In the event of a tie, the Auditor, where the Auditor is the returning officer, receives a casting vote; in the event where the Auditor is not the returning officer, the auditor receives no casting vote.
- 11.3 All Members who are eligible to a vote at General Meetings on the date of an election, as per Article 10.2, shall be eligible for election to the Committee, except as provided for in Article 5.3.

- 11.4 Candidates for each position on the Committee of the Society must be proposed and seconded by members of the Society at the AGM. The candidates may propose themselves. They will be invited to accept their nomination. Candidates will be invited to give an election speech to society members. This speech will be subject to a time limit.
- 11.5 The election of members of the Committee shall take place by secret ballot at the AGM. This, at the discretion of the Returning Officer with the agreement of two-thirds of the membership attending the AGM, may be changed to a show of hands. Should this be implemented it is considered to be a change confined to that specific AGM/EGM and not be deemed a change to the Constitution.

Article 12. Voting at General Meetings

- 12.1 Voting shall be by secret ballot for positions and a show of hands for changes in the constitution unless otherwise determined in a vote at any specific meeting.
- 12.2 Full Members of at least 30 days standing of the Society shall be entitled to vote in motions at General Meetings. The Secretary must present the membership list of those eligible to vote at the election.
- 12.3 Motions and resolutions must be passed by a simple majority of those Full Members present at the meeting, except where otherwise stipulated in this Constitution.

Article 13. Resignations from the Committee

- 13.1 The resignation of any member of the Committee shall be instituted by a letter of resignation to the Secretary of the Society.
- 13.1.1 In the case of the resignation of the Secretary, resignation may be instituted by a letter of resignation to the Auditor.
- 13.2 In the case of resignation during term time, the resigning Committee member must handover all Society property, passwords and handover documents to the committee as per Article 12.1 and, where practical, assist with the induction of their replacement.

Article 14. Handover Documents

- 14.1 Each outgoing officer of the Committee must present Handover Documents at the end of the outgoing officer's term detailing the specific roles and responsibilities of their office, and the person(s) with whom the outgoing officer conducted the business of the Society, in order to assist the incoming officer with their development of the Society.

Article 15. Instigation of Disciplinary Action

- 15.1 The Committee and all members of the Society shall comply with the disciplinary, grievance, bullying and harassment procedures, and all other procedures of the University and the USCG, as may be added to or amended from time to time, with reference to the Societies Complaints Procedure.

15.1.1 Committee members that bring the Society into disrepute may be removed by the Committee, with reference to the Societies Complaints Procedure. This decision is subject to approval from the USCG before taking effect.

15.1.2 Society members that bring the Society into disrepute may be removed from the membership list by a vote of the Committee, with reference to the Societies Complaints Procedure. This decision is subject to approval from USCG before taking effect.

The following constitute some examples of breaches of discipline (but breaches are not limited to the following):

- (i) Serious or persistent breach of Health and Safety.
- (ii) Bringing the name of the Society into disrepute.
- (iii) Acting against the aims and/or objectives of the Society.
- (iv) Misappropriation of any funding relating to the Society.
- (v) Discrimination or Harassment.
- (vi) Gross misconduct as interpreted by USCG.
- (vii) Breaches of any USCG or University policies or procedures.

Article 16. Management of Finance

16.1 The finances of the Society shall be managed by the Auditor and Treasurer of the Society.

16.1.1 This Constitution also provides for the possibility of an Assistant Treasurer if the Society feels it is necessary.

16.2 It is the responsibility of the Treasurer to ensure that all monies received from the University and sponsors are receipted through the Societies Office.

16.3 No Society Member may use their membership for personal financial gain. Failure to adhere to this article shall result in NUI Galway disciplinary action.

Article 17. Amendments to the Constitution

17.1 Amendments to this Constitution may be passed at an Annual General Meeting or an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Society.

17.1.1 The change to the Constitution must be proposed and seconded and put to the vote of the members. A proposed amendment is deemed to be passed by a majority of full members present at the AGM/EGM.

17.2 Such amendments to this Constitution shall require the formal ratification of the University Societies Coordination Group before taking effect.

17.3 The Society must upload their current ratified Constitution to its official Society profile.

Article 18. Dissolution of the Society

- 18.1 The Society may be dissolved by a two-thirds majority vote of its membership present at an AGM or EGM.
- 18.2 The Society may fall into abeyance or be dissolved by decision of the USCG. The following constitute a non-exhaustive list of grounds for abeyance or dissolution.
- (i) Failure to submit a Treasurer's Report, submit receipts for all University grants and provide information for all transactions at the end of the Societies year.
 - (ii) Failure to submit a Secretary's Report at the end of Societies year.
 - (iii) Failure to have a table at Societies Day the following September.
 - (iv) Failure to elect four core committee members by Society Training Weekend.
 - (v) Failure of at least 2 committee members to attend Society Training without prior acceptance of apologies to the USCG.
- 18.3 The Society shall fall into abeyance if general activity ceases.
- 18.4 If the Society remains in abeyance for two consecutive years it will be deemed to be dissolved.
- 18.5 On dissolution of the Society, all the Societies assets, including intellectual property and virtual rights, shall become the property of the University.
